Adequate Telephone Facilities

Many years ago when the Bell Telephone Company had but a few subscribers, many a business man installed a wall telephone and found it all that was necessary at the time to transact his business. Imperceptibly the number of subscribers has increased until now that lone telephone is swamped with traffic.

Is your telephone in this fix? Are your customers being turned away by twos-by tens-by hundreds? Do your customers say: "Oh, I have tried to get you by telephone, but your line is always busy!" Now this is a serious state of affairs. It is nearly as bad to have an overworked telephone as to have none at all. Equipment is so inexpensive to you that you should see to it that you have more than enough facilitles, because one important call may mean the cost of a thousand tele-

Ask the contract department to show you all the newest equipment and have an extension put to your wall phone, have another trunk line, double up what you have or, when advisable, have a Private Branch Exchange of your own. We will furnish a switchboard, five telephones and two trunk lines to central for $18.75 per mouth, BELL TELEPHONE CO. OF MO.

Orange City, Ia, Nov. 16.—The horse-trading case of the Reverend S. Koser of Huil, Ia, has been decided by Judge Kennedy adversely to the minister, who will accordingly be evicted from the pursonage of the First Reformed Church at Huil. The pustoral relations of the minister and his congregation were dissolved on the instigation of the congregation, but the pustor continued to occupy the pursonage and lifewing demonds the case paster continued to occupy the par-sonage, and likewise demanded the pas-ter's salary. To this the church excepted and asked his eviction by the court. A horse trade made by the minister was the cause of the trouble.

One Woman Among the Many Unfortunates - One-Legged Man Will Serve 99 Years for Killing Sweetheart.

Twenty-three prisoners, of which all but one are men, will be taken to the Penitentiary at Jefferson City to-morrow from the city jail. The terms of the convicted persons range from 2 years to one of 39 years.

Preparations were begun vesterday for the removal of the prisoners to the capital. They were taken in pairs to the Bertillion room, where their measure-Bertillion room, where their measure-every detail relative to scars, defects of marks that will in any way lead to their identification, were recorded.

Superintendent John M. Snea of the Bertillion system conducted the examinations, assisted by Detective Edward Schenk.

The only woman among the prisoners is Blanche Mehiburg, who was recently sentenced to two years for grand larceny. She entered a plea of guilty and could have taken one year in the Workhouse in preference to two years in the Penitentiary, but refused it. She stated that she would rather serve two years in the Penitentiary than six months in the city's prison.

NINETY-NINE YEARS FOR CRIPPLE.

Among the male prisorers is Frank Card, a one-legged man, who goes to prison for ninety-nine years for murder. Card pleaded guilty to a charge of murder in the second degree when brought into court and took the ninety-nine-year sentence willingly. He said he did not want to tell his story on the witness stand. Card shot and killed Beulah Craft, 22 years oit, while she was playing a guitar. After shooting the woman he fired two shots at his own head, but both builets went astray.

Card has a wife and several children for the Craft woman, and jealously is believed to have prompted his act. He would never give his reasons for killing the Craft woman. He was silent at all times, and was glad when he could avoid trial. Card is an old railroad conductor. He lost his leg in a Western needent several years ago. Counsellor Bates Holds City Is Entitled to $16,000 Due for Care of Patients, but Urges Consideration.

City Counsellor Bates yesterday submitted to the Board of Health an opinion on the legality of contracts entered into between the board and persons agreeing to maintain relatives at the insane Asylum. The problem has been discussed of late owing to the large number of applications for the city's charity. Until a few years ago the relatives of the inmates appeared before the board and agreed to pay for keeping patients in the city institutions. A few years back it was decided that these contracts were legal and binding.

At the present time there is $5.000 due the city, it is said, in promises of relatives which cannot be collected. There is also about $16.000 which is due the city from persons who have entered into the contracts since the legality of the agreement has been defined.

Mr. Bates rendered the opinion in response to an inquiry from Health Commissioner Snodgras relative to the legality of proceeding in these cases. He holds that the contracts are legal, but urges the careful consideration of cfreumstances as a vital factor in such cases.

He suggests that it would not be wise to ease payment from members of the patient's family which might pauporize them, and thus, in order to increase a little the revenue of the Insane Asylum, force the city to eventually support not only the patients but other members as well.

Persons who are willing to pay for their well.

Persons who are willing to pay for their relatives should make contracts with the city, he holds, but these agreements should in no way be for a higher scale of payment than is required to defray the expenses of the patients. Mr. Bates emphatically states that the city's institutions are of a charitable nature, and that no excess payments beyond the actual cost of maintenance should be exacted from anyone, whether or not they are able to pay it. The opinion permits the board to enter into contracts, but urges the careful con-sideration of circumstances in each case and the effect of exacting maintenance money from the relatives.
